

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

The Board and Staff of the Kelley House Museum extend our warmest wishes for the holidays and into the new year. We were thrilled to see so many of you at our holiday party earlier this month! Our masked and jolly Santa (thank you Rex Smith) greeted about 30 children on our front porch before the reception, which warmed everyone's hearts. As you'll see from the photo, some of us couldn't resist our own visit with old Saint Nick! (From left: Board Vice President Carol Dominy, Curator Karen McGrath, Board Member

REDISCOVERING THE KELLEYS

One of the party's highlights was unveiling our new exhibit on the Kelley family, with memorabilia, photos, clippings, and a scrapbook of their adventures. We hope you'll come see it soon! Learn about their descendants from the new hand-embellished family tree, or deepen your knowledge of individual family members and their contributions to Mendocino as you watch the slide show in the Escola Room. Don't miss Elise Kelley's paintings, or the vintage dresses on display through January 22nd.
